“Call it what you will—vision, purpose, mission, legacy, dream, aspiration, calling, or personal agenda—the intent is the same.

If you are going to be an exemplary leader, you have to be able to imagine a positive future.”

– Kouzes and Posner

Plot Your Inspire a Shared Vision Feedback

- ☐ Use the chart to plot your Self & Observer scores for each behavior in this practice.
- ☐ Place a “check” next to the behavior if it is one of the 2-3 you want to focus on.
- ☐ Add your initial reactions in space provided on P. 73 of the participant guide.

Inspire a Shared Vision Behaviors

2. I talk about future trends that will influence how our work gets done.

7. I describe a compelling image of what our future could be like.

12. I appeal to others to share an exciting dream of the future.

17. I show others how their long-term interests can be realized by enlisting in a common vision.

22. I paint the “big picture” of what we aspire to accomplish.

27. I speak with genuine conviction about the higher meaning and purpose of our work.

What keeps you from demonstrating these behaviors?

What opportunities are there for you to demonstrate them more often?

Focus on the Toothbrush

The eyes see what the brain believes.

The secret of change is to focus all of your energy, not on fighting the old, but on building the new.

Definition of a Vision

A Vision is an ideal and unique image of the future for the common good.

Mission v. Vision

Why do we exist?

What is the future state?

HRD Mission v. Vision

Mission (Why do we exist?)

We equip leaders to BE the BEST of themselves and GET the BEST of the people they serve.

Vision (What is the future state?)

We are changing the world, one leader at a time.

Sample Vision Statements

- ❑ Alzheimer's Association: A world without Alzheimer's disease.
- ❑ Teach for America: One day, all children in this nation will have the opportunity to attain an excellent education.
- ❑ Microsoft (at its founding): A computer on every desk and in every home.
- ❑ Australia Department of Health: Better health and wellbeing for all Australians, now and for future generations.

Reflect on the following questions.
Capture your answers in your workbook, pg. 84-85.

Ideal	What possibilities exist for your team and the work that you do?
Unique	What is unique about the work that your team does?
Image	What images comes to mind when you think about the work your team does?
Future	What does the future look like for your team five to ten years from now?
Common Good	How do your team's shared values support your future vision?

Breakout Groups: What are the themes from your reflection on these questions?
